

A black and white photograph of a decorative metal plaque. The plaque features a variety of stylized letters, including 'G', 'P', 'E', 'L', 'D', 'F', and 'S', some of which appear to be part of larger words like 'GARDEN' or 'PLATE'. A prominent feature is a large, ornate gear at the bottom right. The plaque is mounted on a dark, textured wall.

الله عَزَّ وَجَلَّ بِسْمِ رَبِّ كُلِّ الْكَلَابِ

الكتاب المقدس في المدارس

The image shows a newspaper page with a grid-like layout. At the top left is a portrait of a man. To its right is another portrait, and below it is a third. The page is filled with columns of Arabic text. A prominent logo for 'al-Quds' (القدس) is located in the bottom right corner, consisting of the word 'al-Quds' in a stylized font above a map of Jerusalem.